Another Rarity.

I never saw a purple cow:
And I think it is a fake,
And in the times prevailing now
I seldom see a steak.

Three Imperial Vessels Surrender.

Shanghai, Nov. 6.—The crews of the three gunboats of Admiral Sha's imperial fleet, in the Yangtze river, which put into Shanghai, surrendered to the rebels today. A refusal would have been the destruction of the vessels.

Rebels Capture Pekin.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 6.—Cables today from China through a Chinese newspaper, declare that a large force of revolutionists captured Pekin, the Chinese capital, last night. No details are available, and there is no confirmation.

REAL MADAME "SANS-GENE"

Story of Adventurous Career of Marie Therese Figueur in the French Army.

Everyone knows the washerwoman who was so familiar with Napoleon in Victorien Sardou's play, "Madame Sans-Genie," but the real "Sans-Genie" who lived at that time was a dragoon in one of the great Corsican armies and spent twenty years in camps and barracks, in campaigns and battles over Europe. In the Musee de L'Armee in Paris a special case has just been installed inside which stands her equestrian statue.

Her real name was Marie Therese Figueur and she was born in Burgundy in 1774. When nineteen, at the end of the reign of terror, she enrolled in a cavalry regiment commanded by one of her uncles and soon acquired the nickname of "Sans-Genie." Mme. Sans-Genie fought in Germany with the French and Bavarian armies, charged at Hohenlinden, took part in the siege of Toulon, was in the Italian, Spanish and Austrian campaigns and fought at Austerlitz and in Russia. During the Hundred Days the emperor conferred the Legion of Honor upon her and she charged at Waterloo for the last time.

With the Restoration she left the army to get married. She was then thirty-nine. In the course of her martial career Sans-Genie had five horses shot under her and was wounded eight times in different engagements. She died in hospital in 1861.

Both Delighted.

Two elderly gentlemen, both decently clothed in sober black, were sitting side by side in a Euclid avenue car, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer. Each was reading a morning paper. Suddenly one of the men uttered an exclamation of pleasure and the other peered at him over his glasses.

"I see here," explained the first with a beaming face, "that Mr. B., who died last week, has left his entire fortune to various charitable enterprises. This will be a surprise to his many relatives. It is to me a glad surprise in my case, for I am the pastor of a church to which he has left $10,000."

The second man looked at the article and his face, too, became wreathed in smiles. "God bless him!" he exclaimed heartily. "All to charitable institutions in spite of his relatives! Ah, sir, I like to see money left like that. I do, indeed!"

"Are you also a clergyman?"

"No, sir, I am a lawyer."

Raised $50,000.

Announcement is made by Rev. W. D. Powell, of the Baptist State Board of Missions, that $50,178.94 was raised for State Sunday Schools, missions and church building in the campaign which came to a close Tuesday night. In addition $10,000 was obtained in notes and pledges to complete buildings which the State board has helped to erect. While the exact figures have not been compiled, Dr. Powell estimates that a total of $135,000 to $140,000 has been raised by Kentucky Baptists for work both in the State and outside. The State mission report for the year shows 2,709 conversions, 1,966 baptisms, 10 new churches organized and 43 new Sunday Schools started.

Saved Child From Death.

"After our child had suffered from severe bronchial trouble for a year," wrote G. T. Richardson, of Richardson's Mills, Ala., "we feared it had consumption. It had a bad cough all the time. We tried many remedies without avail, and doctor's medicine seemed as useless. Finally we tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and are pleased to say that one bottle effected a complete cure, and our child is again strong and healthy." For coughs, colds, hoarseness, la grippe, Asthma, croup and sore lungs, its most infallible remedy that's made. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Inspecting Roads.

Mr. E. R. Tandy, who is deeply interested in the movement for better roads in Montgomery county, left this afternoon in his automobile with the three government experts, who arrived yesterday for an inspection of the Hopkinsville pike and the Lafayette roads. It is expected to so arrange that work will begin by the 25th of the month, on these important highways, and will continue until both roads are put in first class condition.—Leaf-Chronicle.

A Burglar's Awful Deed

may not paralyze a home so completely as a mother's long illness. But Dr. King's New Life Pills are a splendid remedy for women. "They gave me wonderful benefit in constipation and female trouble," wrote Mrs. M. C. Dunlap, of Leadhill, Tenn. If ailing, try them. 25c at all druggists.

Where Is It At?

Hod of our fathers, borne of old—
Most times alone, sometimes in pairs—
Wherein, when'er the days turned cold,
They carried coal up cellar stairs—
Where are you at, where are you at?
You're serving now as madam's hat?
—Judge.

It Startled The World

Union City, Tenn., Nov. 7.—The democracy of Obion county met in mass convention for the purpose of endorsing Judge Joseph E. Jones for governor. Col. R. P. Whitesell was elected chairman and Mr. D. A. Glover and the city press made secretary. Harmony speeches were made by Hon. R. A. Pierce, D. P. Caldwell and F. W. Moore.

Is the World Growing Better?

Many things go to prove that it is. The way thousands are trying to help others is proof. Among them is Mrs. W. W. Gould, of Pittsfield, N. H. Finding good health by taking Electric Bitters, she now advises other sufferers, everywhere, to take them. "For years I suffered with stomach and kidney trouble," she writes "Every medicine I used failed till I took Electric Bitters. But this great remedy helped me wonderfully." They'll help any woman. They're the best tonic and finest liver and kidney remedy that's made. Try them. You'll see. 50c at all druggists.

CLEAR STREETS OF CATS.

Eight hundred and sixty-six cats captured in one night recently at New York, is the record of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, which is now sending out its wagons after dark to pick up these homeless animals. Practically all the animals gathered in are found to be suffering from mange or other parasitical diseases, and many of them are maimed and reduced to a skeleton by starvation. Their merciful destruction is regarded by the society as being in the interest of the public as well as of the animals themselves.

FRANCE GETTING STINGY.

The list of gifts made in France to public bodies and charities in 1910 has been published. They amount to $9,346,000, as compared with $20,272,000 in 1909. The total of 2 1/4 million dollars below the average for the last ten years, and the decrease is ascribed to the increase in taxation, more especially in legacy duties. M. Chauchard's legacies head the list, his works of art given to the public being valued at $1,420,000.

FOLLOWED INJUNCTION.

Friend—Why did you get married so soon after the death of your husband?
Widow—Well, my poor husband always insisted that I never put off till tomorrow what I could do today.
—Opinion.

Who Was There That You Knew?

It is the shadowy ranks of those who marched to defeat or death or victory fifty years ago in the mighty conflict that convulsed this great nation, is there a father or grandfather or uncle of yours? Would you like to see a photograph of him in that long ago day of his youth—a photograph that he never knew was taken? Perhaps we can show you one; and in any case, we can tell you a story, stranger than any detective fiction, of 3,500 priceless photographs that were lost and are found again.

3,500 Long Buried Photographs of the Civil War

They were taken by the greatest photographer in the United States of that day; they were bought by the United States Government for $30,000; they were buried in the War Department for 25 years—they are buried there still. But a duplicate set was kept by the photographer—who died poor and broken down; that duplicate set was knocked from a pillar to pier for nearly 50 years, until it was discovered by a New England collector. J. Pierpont Morgan tried to secure the collection—President Garfield and General Sherman helped him. He was worth $10,000,000—yet with the help of the Library of Congress, the entire collection has been gathered into 10 great volumes and is placed within your reach at less than the value of one of the photographs.

As the camera cannot lie. It tells the story of the War you never heard before. Taken under protection of the Secret Service, these photographs bring to light thousands of little-known phases of the war; they penetrate to strange places and record strange things.
